WOULD MARCH WOMEN

That Baptist editor who, at the recent convention in Memphis, undertook to deny to women the right to speak in public, is a deluded fool. He is a relic of the days of the stone age and cave men.

There were times when men looked upon women as chattels and slaves. Civilization was little removed from that age when St. Paul wrote his famous epistle in which he warned against permitting women to speak in public. Paul was not speaking so much from inspiration then as he was from policy—perhaps from prejudice.

Maybe some of the women had talked too much and thus threatened the serenity of the church. Certainly what Paul said then might have well applied without it being accepted as a rule for all time. Maybe the women, not having the same educational advantages or the same knowledge of public affairs, were unable to speak with helpful intelligence.

It is a long stride from Paul's day to the present. Most of us flatter ourselves that times and conditions have improved during those years.

Certain it is that none of us are willing to go back to the conditions which existed then. What Paul prescribed then was well enough for that day. If he had lived till now, he would have changed his view or he would be classed as a fossil. Anybody who tries to apply all of Paul's policies to the present times, with its advancement and refinement, is a fossil, too. Paul wanted the women to keep silent because their voices were not helpful. In this modern day it is the voices of the women that are most helpful to the religion of which that recent Baptist divine thought himself to be the solemn defender. There is something wrong with him besides religion; he's got the pip and thinks it is religion.

OUR FOREIGN POPULATION

The immigration problem is a difficult one. Any attempt at an inflexible regulation would inevitably be unfair, inasmuch as not all immigration is of the same class. There are desirable immigrants, just as there are undesirable native born, and these are undesirable immigrants just as there are undesirable natives.

There are reasons, however, why the undesirable element of foreigners who come to our shores should outnumber the desirables. It is an established fact that successful people are not, on the whole, the moving class. Persons who are successful are generally satisfied to remain where they succeed. The man who is a failure—and there are generally reasons why men fail—is not satisfied. They are the kind who move.

Some of them move because they want to, and others move because they are made to.

Africa's Mediterranean ports, once pirate strongholds, are where American crime waves often begin. The narrow streets of the native quarters long have sheltered the scum of South Europe, of the Levant. Periodic police roundups there were followed by optional "jail or America." Such passports to New York have saved European taxpayers millions. Thus we drained the criminals from a low power population mass whose beginnings run back to the dregs of the old Roman Empire.

The origins of these cutthroats who become our bootleggers, vicemasters, narcotic vendors and gangsters make nasty reading. Slave-ridden Rome for centuries was the cesspool of the socially inadequate of Africa, Asia Minor. Even many highpower Romans crossed their blood with slave concubines. The present day descendants of these show in gangster lists of Chicago, New York, and the populous centers of the country.

Different birth rates constitute the danger herein. Consider the one immigrant who applied to an American shelter for charity for his thirty-three daughters and sons. Should this thirty-three rate continue, he will become progenitor of 1,089 grandchildren. His competitor, the old-stock Anglo-Saxon-American father, who finds he must hustle to feed, clothe and educate his brood of three, can expect at his three rate, nine grandchildren. One thousand eighty-nine is nine is, of course, an extreme case. Anyone, however, who will project forward the differential birth rates of, say, even an eight-child Mediterranean and a three-child Nordic family will obtain results positively disconcerting. The great war's mental tests showed our intelligent citizenry comes overwhelmingly from northwestern Europe. We must perfect the immigration quota act herein.

Brooklet Votes For Water Works Bonds

Brooklet, Ga., May 15.—By a practically unanimous vote, the people of Brooklet today decided that bonds should be issued to finance the construction of a municipal water system. Bonds in value of $50,000 were asked for, but should the cost of installing the water system be less than that, bonds to cover the cost only will be floated.

The issue will be validated this week, it is expected, and bids for the bonds will be called for as soon as possible. The waterwork project is one of three progressive movements the town council has recently been pushing. It is planned to follow the water system with sewerage, and later to secure a twenty-four hour electric service for the town. At present lighting ceases at 10 o'clock each evening. But eight votes were cast in today's election against the waterworks bond issue.

Best Time To Side Dress Cotton

In a recent bulletin issued by the South Carolina Experiment Station, results were given of side dressing cotton with calcium nitrate of soda at different stages of growth. When nitrate of soda was applied at chopping time the yield was 977 pounds of seed cotton. When the nitrate of soda was applied three weeks after chopping the yield was 955 pounds of seed cotton. When the side dressing of nitrate of soda was applied six weeks after chopping the yield was 840 pounds of seed cotton.

Therefore, it would appear from these experiments that the best time to make a side dressing of nitrate of soda to cotton should be soon after the cotton is chopped. This is in line with the experience of our best farmers.

Boll weevils are already present in many of the cotton fields of South Georgia. They are feeding on the bud and in many cases doing considerable damage to the young cotton. If about two applications of a syrup mixture, composed of one gallon of kerosene, one gallon of water, and one gallon of water is applied to the cotton with a mop before squares form, most of the wintered weevils can be destroyed. This will give a good chance to get a good crop set before weevils become numerous in the summer.

A side dressing of quick acting nitrogen applied at chopping time or soon after will eliminate growth and early fruiting which will help to make a profitable crop of cotton in spite of the boll weevil.

New Ford Factory a Scene of Activity

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—With production of the Ford Motor Company in full swing, the big Rouge plant at Dearborn, the largest manufacturing establishment in the world, has become the scene of the greatest activity in its history.

Reports covering a month's operations show the receipt of 9,000 carloads of material and the shipment of 8,797 carloads of products from the plant.

Incoming shipments consist largely of coal, iron ore, the latter being unloaded from lake vessels at the Ford docks on the Rouge river, limestone and sand, with numerous consignments of materials used in smaller quantities, while the Rouge plant sends out for sale not only automobiles and automobile parts, but also coal, cement, scrap and various other by-products saved through manufacturing efficiency.

Within the Rouge factory enclosure are 92 miles of railway, on which an average of 2,000 cars are handled daily, including those used for intra-factory movements. Approximately 500 freight cars carry products from this factory each day. The bulk of these shipments is composed of automobile parts consigned to 32 other assembly plants in the United States and to foreign plants. Model A Ford automobiles assembled at the Rouge plant are delivered to dealers under their own power, as the plant assembles automobiles only for the Detroit area.

For the Rouge and Highland Park plants combined 11,234 carloads of materials were received in the month and 11,199 carloads of products went out from these factories.

The volume of spring orders and the addition of new body types to the line of Model A Ford cars has caused a general stimulation to production throughout the organization and the output of passenger cars and commercial vehicles is now averaging approximately 8,100 a day. There has been a steady increase in output in both production and sales ever since the Model A car was developed.

CARD OF THANKS
To the dear friends who have contributed to our welfare, who have sheltered us under the open sky, and to nurses and doctors who have worked so faithfully during our disaster and death of our dear son and brother, we wish to use our feeble words to express our most sincere thanks. The beauty of the many floral offerings is still printed on our hearts as a token of undying love. The kind deeds and words of sympathy will ever be remembered and each of you are remembered in our prayers.

Dear angel of our every dream, Hope of our very soul; You were the idol of our heart. Now guide us to the goal.

More concrete roads than ever before

Last year—1928—saw more concrete roads built than ever before. During the year almost 8000 miles were completed, or placed under contract. This mileage is more than three times the amount of all other kinds of paved roads built during the year.

There's a reason for that!

It's significant that the greatest mileages of concrete have been built by those states having the heaviest traffic, and the most experience in building and maintaining paved roads.

COUNTY AGENT

The six million dollars which was appropriated by congress for loans for seed, feed and fertilizer has been exhausted, and the county committee has been notified not to accept any further applications. I wish to call the attention of those farmers who have obtained these loans to the following letter from the Farmers' Seed Loan Office at Columbia, S. C., which is self-explanatory:

"Columbia, S. C., May 10, 1929.
"County Agents and Chairmen
of County Committees:

"It recently has been brought to our attention that there are instances of where some farmers who have made application for seed, feed and fertilizer loans, and after having their applications approved by this office, have used a part of the money advanced to them for expenditures for purposes other than that for which they were authorized by law. All money advanced them by the United States government must be used for the purpose of crop production, and they are only permitted to use the funds so loaned for the purchase of seed and fertilizer, and feed for work stock.

"It has been reported that in some sections of the seed loan area that the United States government does not seriously contemplate the collection of these loans this fall. Such reports should be corrected at once, since this office is already making elaborate plans for collection of these loans.

"Loans made by the United States government from this fund are secured by a first crop mortgage on the 1929 crop, and it will be unlawful for any mortgagor to sell any part of this crop without first satisfying the claim of the United States government; and we will expect payments of these loans to be made from the first proceeds of crops sold. Any violation of the foregoing will be severely prosecuted.

"Will you kindly see that this information is given widespread publication in your local papers?"

"Yours very truly,
"FARMERS' SEED LOAN OFFICE,
"L. E. WHITE,
"Administrative Officer in Charge."

Because of the rush of work for the past two months, I have had to neglect the 4-H club members. I hope that they are all going ahead with their work. It is time for pig club members to get their pigs, and I want to remind them that there are several boys who have pure bred pigs for sale. I hope to get out a letter to the pig club members in a day or two asking those who want to buy pigs and who want financial help, to let me know right away. In the meantime all boys who read this article and who want pigs will please let me hear from them. My intention was to visit all schools again and talk over club work with the members, but it has been impossible to do this. I am going to visit each member at his home soon, and I want to see him going right ahead with his project. Come in to see me when you are in town.

There will probably be one more poultry car run in about two weeks. The prices on fryers are declining steadily, and I would advise all poultry growers to sell them off as early as they are large enough. We can not expect prices to hold up always, so I cannot advise those who have fryers large enough to market to hold them for the car. I would like to have it distinctly understood that I have absolutely nothing to do with the buying on the poultry cars. The prices are obtained by asking for bids, and the car is sold to the highest bidder.

We do not like bringing up unpleasant subjects, especially at this time, but it is well for us to begin thinking about what we are going to do about Mr. Boll Weevil. Some are already preparing to poison, and of course we have those who never poison. If you intend to poison, it is time to be thinking of your supply of calcium arsenate. I am getting prices on arsenate now, and will be prepared to give information or order out for farmers. We hope that weevils will not give us much trouble, but it is best to be prepared.

I wish to call attention to the show and sale of pure bred beef cattle at Moultrie on Tuesday, May 21st. The sale is under the auspices of the Moultrie Chamber of Commerce. Two hundred young bulls of different breeds will be offered for sale at reasonable prices. I expect to be there, and hope that several farmers from this county will attend.

E. P. JOSEY, County Agent.

MYSTERY CLUB

Mrs. Bruce Oliff delightfully entertained the Mystery club, of which she is a member, at her pretty home on Zetzerow avenue Tuesday afternoon. She used as her decoration a pretty arrangement of sweet peas and Easter lilies. After the game, at which Mrs. Inman Foy made high scores and Mrs. Roger Holland low, a dainty salad course was served. Her prizes were, for high, a deck of cards, and for low a bottle of perfume. Three tables of guests were invited.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY WOMEN

On May 13th forty-four members of the Baptist woman's missionary society met at the church. "The Morning Light is Breaking" was the first song. Mrs. W. E. Dekle led in prayer. Mrs. O. L. McLemore had charge of the devotional. "Mother" was her subject. After a chapter in the Bible on mother, Mesdames E. A. Smith, Cliff Bradley, W. E. Dekle, Frank C. Parker, R. Lee Moore and George T. Groover gave beautiful tributes to motherhood. Miss Mary Ruth Lanier gave an impressive reading. Miss Lucile Futrell sweetly sang, "Mother Macrae." Mrs. O. L. McLemore read a very touching poem on "Mother." A Christian class period, "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us," was sung by the society. Mrs. J. M. Lewis dismissed with prayer. Twenty-two children enjoyed the story hour.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Last Sunday evening our congregation was privileged in having some delightful music by "The Prestons," who always ring true to the gospel message. Hope they may come back at an early date. Next Sunday, both morning and evening, our people will have the privilege of hearing a new voice in our pulpit. Rev. J. B. Picklen, D. D., executive secretary of the synod of Georgia, whose office is located in Decatur, Ga., will preach at both services. Dr. Picklen is a safe and forceful preacher and the public as well as our own people can ill afford to miss these services. Sunday school at 10:15. Worship hours, 11:15 and 8:30. Come.

Until further notice all evening services at the Presbyterian church will be at 8:30 o'clock.

FELT BAD AFTER EATING

"FOUR YEARS AGO, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation."

Valuable Recipes For the Housewife

A second edition of 250,000 copies of its new recipe book giving formulas for unusual desserts and salads never before possible to make in the home, has been sent to the printer by Frigidaire Corporation. The first edition, which ran 600,000 copies, was exhausted within sixty days after publication.

The book, which is being distributed through dealers everywhere features practical household applications of quick-freezing, according to its author, Miss Verna L. Miller, head of the corporation's experimental kitchen.

Many of the recipes were devised in connection with engineering development of the Frigidaire cold control, acclaimed as the greatest single contribution to household refrigeration since the first ice box.

"The same kind of frozen desserts and salads enjoyed only in hotels and restaurants equipped with powerful refrigeration machinery, may now be made by the average housekeeper in her own kitchen with the help of these recipes and the aid of the cold control," says Miss Miller.

"We conducted lengthy and exacting tests covering each recipe before it was finally approved. Hundreds of visitors to the experimental kitchen tasted variations of each recipe and voted their preference. In some cases we tried more than eighty combinations of ingredients before the recipe was finally perfected."

"In addition, each separate recipe was checked for appearance. A dessert must not only be pleasing in taste but also attractive in appearance to win popular approval. The recipes were devised with an eye to economy and ease of preparation. Freezing tests were made under various conditions to insure uniform results."

"Besides giving the advantages of six freezing speeds in obtaining the varied temperatures necessary for freezing, these new desserts, cold control cuts the freezing time of ice cubes almost in half."

Check

Value for Value Price for Price!

If you are considering the purchase of an automobile, you owe it to yourself to learn the true extent of Chevrolet's value leadership. And all you need to do is check the new Chevrolet Six against any other car—value for value and price for price!

Here, in the price range of the four, is offered a smooth, powerful, six-cylinder valve-in-head motor—which delivers better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline—and whose smooth, quiet, velvety operation, with its complete lack of drumming and vibration, is a revelation—even to those who are accustomed to driving high-priced automobiles. Here are beautiful bodies by Fisher. Here, in all closed models, are fitments by Terner. Here, in rich, deep-tufted upholstery, is an adjustable driver's seat... and a completely-equipped instrument panel. And throughout the entire chassis are found numerous examples of advanced engineering—such as quiet, non-locking 4-wheel brakes... ball-bearing steering mechanism... automatic acceleration pump... and chromium plating on all bright metal.

But no mere recital of features can give you any conception of Chevrolet's value leadership. So we urge you to come in and see for yourself why over 500,000 people have chosen the new Chevrolet Six since January 1st!

COMPARE the delivered price as well as the list price in considering automobile values. Chevrolet's delivered prices include only reasonable charges for delivery and financing.

PARKER REPELS ENEMY ATTACKS

CALLS UPON MISGUIDED OFFICERS TO RESIGN FROM MILITARY SERVICE.

Atlanta, May 20.—In a signed statement issued tonight, following a conference with Governor L. G. Hardman, Adjutant General Homer C. Parker calls on a dozen high-ranking, ambitious and misguided officers of the national guard to "tender their resignations to the governor," saying in the statement, "since these 12 officers can neither endure nor tolerate the commander-in-chief or the adjutant general, it is only reasonable to assume that they will hasten to separate themselves from the military establishment."

The adjutant general's statement gives a resume of what was reported to him to have been the procedure at the recent annual convention of the National Guard Officers' Association, and refers to the fact that during two years past there has been much about the fight waged against him by certain officers in the national guard.

After reviewing his military training and experience, including a long army service, General Parker, a native of Bulloch county, a member of one of the oldest families in the state, concludes his statement as follows:

"During the past two years much has been said about the fight that has been waged against me by certain officers in the Georgia national guard. Up to this time I have endured the criticism in silence. The time has come when I believe it behooves me to speak. I am convinced that the people of Georgia want me to speak. In order that those who do not know what the 'rumpus' is all about may be informed, let me start at the beginning. In 1927, after having served my country for approximately six years as an officer in the army, I believed I would like to be an adjutant general of Georgia. I had never been a member of the Georgia national guard, (this found later to be criminal in the eyes of certain national guard officers), and I was not familiar with the internal dissension, strife, political factions and ambitions that existed in the guard at that time and still are in evidence. It so happened that I lived in a small town in Georgia that had no national guard organization located within its borders for about twenty years prior to 1927. I was not old enough to

Tax Equalizers Begin Preparing Tax Digest

The Bulloch county board of tax equalizers began last week the work of reviewing the tax returns for the year. To date they have about completed the preliminary work, which consists of comparing the returns with those of last year. After that work has been completed it will be necessary to make returns for the large number who failed to do so for themselves. It is believed the valuations for the county will be above those of last year.

Will Honor the Dead By Serving the Living

May 30th is memorial day for the World War dead, also poppy day. The poppy is a symbol of the World War and has won a place in the hearts of the people of many countries as a memorial flower.

The poppy that is worn is a tribute to the memory of the men who gave their lives in service to their country in the great war, is made by the disabled men of that war. In this way the men make quite a nice sum each year for the support of their families and in many cases use their earnings to receive an education in order that they may some day be able to carry on regardless of their disability.

When we know of men who have lost both legs from effects of the war, that are still able to earn a livelihood by making poppies can we ignore the service they have rendered and refuse to help sell their poppies?

Poppy day is not "rag day," and every little red flower you wear in your buttonhole has been shaped by the hands of disabled veterans, and every penny you drop into the box of the poppy sellers goes to aid the disabled, their families and the families of the dead.

It is the desire of the American Legion Auxiliary that every person in Statesboro buy one of these poppies on May 30th.

TRUSTEES AND FRIENDS OF THE GEORGIA NORMAL IN CONFERENCE AT THE SCHOOL ON LAST WEDNESDAY, MAY THE 15TH

MONIES RECEIVED FOR STORM FUND

LOCAL TREASURER MAKES SHOWING OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS BY HIM.

C. B. McAllister, treasurer of the local Red Cross chapter today makes public his report of funds received and disbursed by him to date. This report closes his activities, since all monies received now are being turned over directly into the hands of the field representative of the Red Cross, Miss Daley, who is in charge of the work here, and whose office is in the Bank of Statesboro building.

The report of Mr. McAllister is as follows:

As treasurer of the local chapter of the American Red Cross I beg to hand you herewith a financial statement showing the financial activity of the local chapter since the recent tornado that visited our section. I would appreciate publication of this statement for the information of our people.

Total collections of money . . $5,835.57	Disbursements . . . 2.15
Gas and oil for trucks used . . 18.75	Stamping envelopes . . . 28.00
Cotton seed . . . 8.90	Freight on seed . . . 404.00
Rome Stove and Range Co. for 550 cook stoves . . 5,378.77	Paid National Headquarters 5,378.77
Total . . . $5,835.57	(These stoves were transported free by the Central of Georgia Railway from Rome.)

You will observe from the above statement that some money was disbursed by local chapter, and the rest was turned over to national headquarters by way of explanation. I wish to advise that this was brought about by the fact that some money was needed before the national workers arrived, and since they arrived they are paying all bills and we turned our collections over to national headquarters to be used by them.

Yours very truly,
C. B. McALLISTER, Treasurer.

Brooklet Baptists to Have Revival Services

Revival services will begin at the Brooklet church Monday morning, June 10th, at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. Fred Eden, of Macon, will do the preaching. Rev. Eden is a Christian character who loves the Lord and His work, is a great church worker and builder, and we feel that in the coming of Mr. Eden we will be greatly benefited, the church, homes and community life will be blessed.

A very cordial invitation is extended to all men everywhere to come and worship with us at all these meetings. Morning, 10:30; and 8:15 o'clock at night. Each service will be preceded by a twenty-minute service of songs.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
There will be no preaching service at the First Baptist church on next Sunday morning on account of the commencement sermon at the high school. Sunday school meets at 10 and will dismiss in time to go to the school building for the sermon. The pastor will preach at the evening service on "How God Makes Himself Known to Men." The evening services will be at 8:30 o'clock during the summer.

Poultry Sale Next Wednesday at Central

A poultry car will be at the Central of Georgia depot all day Wednesday, May 29th. Loading will begin at 9 o'clock and continue all day. The early afternoon will probably be the best time for those who have large lots of chickens, since the rush will be over by then. Unfortunately we do not receive the bids in time to publish the prices, but the prices will be printed on handbills and distributed. This will probably be the last car operated this season, though we hope to be able to run one more car in June. Fryers will very likely be cheaper on the last car. I would like for all farmers to get the prices before bringing chickens, as sometimes dissatisfaction is caused by not knowing the prices in advance.

The diploma will be delivered by Col. Fred T. Lanier, president of the city board of education.

Warren Jones, 13-year-old Chicago boy, admitted small thefts of money from neighbors to gratify his love for the movies.

FOUR YOUTHS HELD ON ARSON CHARGE

At the close of an all-day preliminary hearing here Saturday before Justices E. D. Holland and H. B. Kennedy, four young men from the Bay district were bound over to the grand jury on charges of setting fires to houses on the night of May 4, in the Bay district. One of the houses was owned by D. B. Warnell and Griner Brothers, turpentine operators; one belonged to Berry Floyd, and the other to the husband of Charlie and Walter Roach, brothers, of Savannah. Charlie Roach is a member of the Savannah police force, and Walter Roach is employed on the Atlantic Coast Line railroad.

It was alleged that the young men were out for a lark at night and destroyed the houses in a spirit of frolic. Two of the houses were valuable residences, worth together around $4,000. Anderson and Jones represented the defendants, and A. M. Deal assisted Solicitor General Neville in the prosecution. About fifteen witnesses were introduced by the state, and the defendants presented no evidence and declined to make statements in their own behalf.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS APPRECIATIVE OF COURTESIES
The general science classes of the Statesboro High School wish to express thanks to Mr. J. A. Simmons of the Georgia Power Company, Mr. J. L. Mathews of the Statesboro Telephone Company and Mr. Morgan Atkins of the Statesboro Provision Company and ice plant for courtesies extended to the students on their recent visits to their respective places of business. The trips proved most instructive as well as interesting, entertaining and the classes appreciate the co-operation of these companies in making practical what it would have been impossible for them to have acquired from the study of books only.

HART RETURNED FAVOR TO BULLOCH

SENDER COTTON SEED IN RETURN FOR CORN SHIPPED DURING RECENT DROUGHT.

(Hartwell Sun)
Augusta, Ga.—Official figures of the toll taken by recent tornadoes in South Georgia show there were fifty-three lives lost, 322 persons severely injured, and a property loss of $1,500,000.

This report was made by Walter Davidson, assistant general field manager of the American Red Cross, on a trip through the stricken area. Mr. Davidson said crop damage was severe. His figures showed $150,000 was needed for immediate relief, which the Red Cross has contributed $25,000.

"Turn about is fair play," goes the adage, and then there's another one about bread cast upon the waters will return, etc.

At any rate, Hart county was in the middle of drought some four or five years ago, and Bulloch county sent her a carload of corn. That was a mighty fine thing they did, and our people will never forget the spirit that prompted it.

Last week Hart county folk sent Bulloch county a shipment of cotton seed for planting, practically everything in that county in the way of crops having been lost in the storms that visited South Georgia some three weeks ago.

Hartwell and Hart county people are glad of the opportunity to show in a material way their appreciation for the help Bulloch county extended to us when the drought wrought havoc with our own crops several years ago.

STILSON SCHOOL DRAWS TO CLOSE

MANY INTERESTING FEATURES MARK CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE SCHOOL.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of this school year was the play given last Friday evening in the Stilson High School auditorium. Notwithstanding the threatening weather, the cast played to a packed house, and the frequent applause and almost constant laughter bore evidence of the keen delight of our friends from Brooklet came down to witness the play and were so generous in their praise of its merits as an entertainment that Supt. Graham drove down Monday and extended to the Stilson faculty an invitation to repeat the performance at Brooklet High School Thursday evening, May 23. We sincerely appreciate the courtesy of our neighboring school and hope to meet every expectation in the way of delightful entertainment.

A big hearted board of Stilson High School, with the help of 350 two basketball teams and the skill and generosity of Harley Warnock, installed electric lights over our basketball courts this week. The high school set are very enthusiastic over this improvement and have thoroughly enjoyed the "after supper" practices.

Miss Thetis Barnes and Miss Mary Agnes Cone are busy coaching the senior play to be given in the high school auditorium Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. This play promises an evening of real entertainment.

The juniors are looking forward to Wednesday evening, when they will entertain in honor of the seniors with a prom party on the high school campus. The brilliant lights that now gleam under the spreading trees on the campus in the evening make it as ideal place for entertainment.

The music and expression recital will be given in the auditorium Monday evening, May 27th.

On Tuesday evening, May 28th, the junior high school graduating class will have their graduation exercises. D. B. Turner will deliver a short address for these young people and Dr. D. L. Deal will deliver their state certificates. Miss Elizabeth Gilson will deliver the valedictory for the class and Miss Willie Mae Reid will do the salutatory.

On Wednesday evening, May 29th, the senior high graduation takes place. Senator Howell Cone will make the address for the class and Supt. B. R. Olliff will deliver the diplomas. Woodrow Hagan, of Arcolia, will deliver the class valedictory and Miss Mae Coleman will give the salutatory. Mr. Olliff will also deliver approximately fifty perfect attendance certificates to students and a like number of mothers of these students.

On Sunday, May 26th, Rev. A. E. Spencer, of Statesboro, will preach the commencement sermon on the high school auditorium. He will be assisted in the service by Rev. A. V. Sims, of Metter.

Stilson is completing one of the most successful terms of school ever held in Bulloch county and the town and community are truly proud of its splendid school which it considers an asset to the community.
